FOR THE LADIES.

HOW TO CHOOSE A GOOD HUSBAND.

When you see a young man of modest, respectful, retiring manners, not given to pride, to vanity or flattery: he will make a good husband; for he will be the same "kind man" towards his wife after marriage, that he was before it.

When you see a young man of frugal and industrious habits, no "fortune hunter," but who would take a wife for the value of herself, and not for the sake of her wealth, that man will make a good husband, for his affection will not decrease, neither will he bring himself or his partner to poverty or want.

When you see a young man, whose manners are of the boisterous and disgusting kind, with 'brass' enough to carry him any where, and vanity enough to make him think every one inferior to himself, don't marry him girls, he will not make a good husband.

When you see a young man, who is using his best endeavours to raise himself from obscurity, to credit, character and affluence, by his own merits, marry him he will make a good husband and one worth having.

When you see a young man depending solely for his reputation and standing in society, upon the wealth of his rich father or other relations, don't marry him for goodness sake, he will make a poor husband.

When you see a young man, always employed in adorning his person, or riding through the streets in gigs, who leaves his debts unpaid, although frequently demanded; never do you marry him, for he will in every respect make a bad husband.

When you see a young man, who never engages in any affrays or quarrels by day; nor follies by night, and whose dark black deeds are not of so mean a character, as to make him wish to conceal his name; who does not keep low company nor break the Sabbath, nor use profane language, but whose face is seen regularly at church, where he ought to be, he will certainly make a good husband.

When you see a young man, who is below you in wealth, offer you marriage, don't deem it disgrace, but look into his character; and if you find it corresponds to these directions take him, and you will get a good husband.

Never make money an object of marriage, for if you do, depend upon it, as a balance to the good you will get a bad husband.

When you see a young man who is attentive and kind to his sisters, or aged mother; who is not ashamed to be seen in the streets with the woman who gave him birth and nursed him, supporting her weak and tottering frame upon his arm, who will attend to all her little wants with filial love, affection and tenderness, take him girls who can get him, no matter what his circumstances in life, he is truly worth the winning and having, and will in certainty, make a good husband.

Lastly—always examine into character, conduct and motives, and when you find these good in a young man, then may you be sure he will make a good husband.

North Carolina Telegraph.

THE Editor of the North Carolina Telegraph gives information to all concerned, that he expects the publication of his paper to commence the first week in January next. Those persons holding subscription papers are requested to make returns of Subscribers' names, at the farthest, by the 15th of December. Papers directed to the Post Office in Fayetteville, by private conveyance or by mail, will will be duly attended to.

The Editor would do injustice to his own feelings not to express his warmest gratitude, for the liberal encouragement he has already received. If any thing were wanting to confirm his conviction of the necessity and importance of such a publication, the patronage he has received from all classes of society and from every part of the State would certainly do it.

It is hoped that all who wish to possess the paper from its commencement will immediately send in their names, either by giving them to those who have proposals, or by leaving them with any Post Master who will forward them. The present expectation is, to publish in pamphlet form, containing 16 pages a week, making a volume of 832 pages a year; so that those who take the work from its commencement, may file away for future usefulness a greater mass of religious, political, and literary intelligence than can, perhaps, be collected in any other way, with so little expense.

Ministers of the Gospel throughout the State are requested to make known to their congregations the anticipated commencement of this paper, and to encourage all who wish to subscribe to do it without delay.

It is believed that if those who have already taken a deep interest in this object were respectively to exert their influence a little farther, that a subscription sufficiently large would be obtained to ensure the continuance of a Journal so much needed. Upon this influence the Editor confidently calculates, and promises his best exertions to meet the public expectation.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina.

Gentlemen: In making to you the annual Report required of the Public Treasurer by law, I have the honor respectfully to submit the following, to-wit:—

The Receipts at the Treasury of North-Carolina for the year commencing with the first day of November, 1824, and ending with the last day of October, 1825, including sundry payments of Arrearages, and the Public Taxes of every other description, which become due and were paid at the Treasury of this State within that period, together with the Dividends declared by our three several Banks, and which were not appropriated for vacant Lands latterly entered, and paid for in course of the time above-mentioned; and the collection made from the Bonds given by purchasers of the Public Lands near Raleigh, which were sold in 1820, amounting to one hundred and twelve thousand, two hundred and twenty-nine dollars, fifty-six cents and five-sixths of a cent ($112,229 56 5-6).

To this sum, the balance remaining in the Treasury on the first day of November, 1824, and thereafter to be accounted for, as reported to the last General Assembly, being added, viz. one hundred and thirty-seven thousand and forty-one dollars, six and a half cents, an aggregate amount of two hundred & forty-nine thousand, two hundred and seventy dollars, sixty-three cents & one-third of a cent, is formed ($249,270 63 1-3).

From the sum total, Disbursements have been made, within the time first above mentioned, including the defaced and worn Treasury Notes burnt by the last Assembly, to the amount of one hundred and thirty-five thousand, three hundred and eighty-six dollars and thirty-five cents and seven-twelfths of a cent ($135,586 35 7-12), the vouchers of which have been handed over to the Comptroller, and passed upon by that officer.

This Expenditure being deducted from the aggregate amount above-mentioned, will be found to leave a balance of one hundred and thirteen thousand, eight hundred and eighty-four dollars and twenty-seven cents and three-fourths of a cent, remaining in the Treasury of this State, on the first day of November instant—say on the first day of November, 1825, and hereafter to be accounted for ($113,884 27 3-4).

For the several items forming the reception and expenditure above-mentioned, the Public Treasurer asks leave respectfully to refer to the printed Statement prepared and furnished by the Comptroller, for the use of the Members of the present Gen'l. Assembly.

The State Bank declared Dividends in the months of December and June last, at the rate of 4 per cent. which, on the shares held in it by North-Carolina, amounted to twenty-one thousand, four hundred and twelve dollars, which were passed to the credit of the State by that Bank, and are, of course, included in the amount of the Receipts at the Public Treasury first above-mentioned:—The December Dividend, was subjected to a reduction of three thousand, three hundred and fifty-six dollars and twenty-four cents, being the amount of the interest which had accrued and was payable out of it to the Bank according to law, on account of the unpaid for shares of the Stock held therein by North-Carolina, at the time of the declaration of said dividend. The voucher for which reduction from the dividend and payment to the Bank is included in the general account of expenditure or disbursement for the late fiscal year, and will be found in the files handed over to the Comptroller, as above-mentioned.

The Banks of Newbern and Cape Fear, likewise declared half yearly dividends in the months above mentioned; the bank of Newbern, at the rate of four per cent.; the proceeds of which formed a part of the Fund set apart for Internal Improvements. The Bank of Cape-Fear declared, additionally, on the Stock then lately purchased by the State as follows, viz: In December, to the amount of eighteen dollars, and in June last, to the amount of three hundred and three dollars, which went of course into the common Treasury.

The Cape Fear Navigation Company declared likewise a dividend of four per cent. for the year 1824, which, on the Stock held in it by North-Carolina, and on the payments made by her, in part of her last subscription, up to the first of November, 1824, amounted to four hundred and two dollars and twenty-seven cents: which sum likewise formed an item of receipt at the Treasury of the State.

Of the sum of one hundred and thirteen thousand eight hundred and eighty-four dollars and twenty-seven cents and three-fourths of a cent, above-mentioned, as being the balance due and payable from the Public Treasurer to the State of North-Carolina, on the first day of the present month, viz: on the first day of November, 1825, forty-five thousand four hundred and forty dollars and thirty-six cents, are deposited and stand at my credit, as Public Treasurer, at the State-Bank at Raleigh.

Fifty-six thousand, one hundred and four dollars and sixty-nine cents, are deposited and stand at my credit, in like manner, in the Bank of Newbern, in Raleigh:

And eighteen thousand, three hundred and forty-four dollars and twenty-three cents, are deposited, in like manner, and stand at my credit as Public Treasurer, in the Bank of Cape Fear, at Fayetteville.

The remainder consists of worn and redeemed Treasury Notes, counted in files and made ready for burning, amounting to thirteen thousand, nine hundred and eighty-five dollars and eighty-five cents—of warrants and other claims on the Treasury paid off and taken up since the close of the late fiscal year—and of cash kept in the office for the purpose of meeting the demands or expenditures of the day.

The Public Treasurer has rendered to the President of the Board of Internal Improvements an account of his Receipts and Expenditures from the first of November 1824, to the first of November 1825, comprehending the payments made at the Treasury by the purchasers of parts of the Cherokee Lands, together with all other monies received by him and which are subject to the drafts or disposal of that Board; which shows and leaves in his hands an unexpended sum or balance of seventeen thousand, five hundred and sixty-four dollars, and ninety-six cents, yet to be accounted for ($17,564 96)—a copy or abstract of which Account or Statement accompanies this, and is marked with the letter A.

The Treasurer has the honor likewise to submit to the General Assembly an Abstract of Receipts and Disbursements, or Statement of Accounts, shewing the condition of the Agricultural Fund of North-Carolina on the first day of the present month, which will be found to leave a balance of seven thousand, six hundred and ninety-three dollars and seven cents, in favor of and to the credit of the said Fund ($7,693 07)—which Statement is marked with the letter B.

The Public Treasurer has continued to progress in issuing the Treasury Notes ordered by the Assembly of 1823, from time to time, and as he could make sale of them; that work, however, remains still unfinished, owing to the want of a sufficient number of purchasers: in course of the current year, and before the next meeting of the Legislature, it is hoped and believed, the business will be completed and satisfactorily closed.

With respect to the stock purchased and to be purchased with the proceeds of the Treasury Notes issued and to be issued, the Treasurer has hitherto been enabled to procure nine shares only of State Bank Stock—and sixteen shares only of the Stock of the Bank of Newbern; for each of which purchases he gave par, or one hundred dollars per share: He has bought of the Stock of the Bank of Cape-Fear, two hundred and thirty-five (235) shares at ninety-five dollars per share; and has agreed to purchase, at the same rate, the Stock of that Bank which is at present held by the Cape-Fear Navigation Company on the ground principally, of the interest which the State holds or has in that Company:—Others have offered of the like kind of stock, but it appeared to him best to decline purchasing so largely in the Stock of one and the same Bank, for the present and until the wishes of the Legislature should be known:—He is persuaded the Bank of Cape-Fear is unquestionably solvent, and that its Stock is safe and valuable, and believes withal, that the present reduced market price of it, is to be accounted for, principally, and perhaps solely, from the circumstance of her Dividends having latterly been declared at the rate of 3 per cent. only, whilst those of our other Banks were declared at 4 per cent.

In obedience to the Resolution of the last General Assembly in regard to Wrecks, &c. &c. the Treasurer has invited the attention of the Solicitors for the State, for the ridings bordering on our sea-coast, to that business; and doubts not they will enable him, at some future and early day, to report satisfactorily on the subject.

The Exposes or Statements of the situation of the Banks of Cape Fear and Newbern, in December and June last, are herewith transmitted:—Those required of the State Bank are not yet prepared, but will be made up to the present time, early in the next week; when they shall likewise be forwarded, without further delay.

Much and respectfully, Gentlemen, your obd't. serv't,

JOHN HAYWOOD, Pub. Treas.

MAJOR GENERAL GAINES.

On Saturday last the Governor of Virginia presented to Maj. Gen. Gaines, the sword voted to him by the Legislature in Feb. 1816. The presentation took place in the Council Chamber, in the presence of the Executive Council and a number of gentlemen and ladies.

The sword is of most beautiful workmanship; manufactured by Mr. Harvey Lemis, of Philadelphia, under the superintendance of that excellent officer and man of taste, Genl. Cadwallader. It is a gold mounted, cut and thrust; with leather scabbard. The handle and scabbard mountings, ornamented with military devices. The blade has a sketch of Fort Erie, surmounted by the American Eagle, bearing a scroll, inscribed "Defence of Erie, 15th August, 1814." The time is chosen after Drummond's column had gained possession of the Bastion. The General is seen leading on his reserve to take the work, against which he had previously directed a powerful and concentrated fire of musketry. The enemy is seen retreating in confusion; while a long 18 pounder is sweeping their column from the battery on the left. In the back ground appear the stone buildings which composed part of the Fort, with a distant view of the lake in the perspective. At this moment of deep interest and excitement, the General is represented reining up his charger to speak to a wounded officer who lies on the ground, supported by a soldier. The officer is Lieut. From the National Intelligencer.

The following Circular has been issued by the Secretary of the Navy to the Commandants of the different Navy Yards, Stations, and Squadrons:

[CIRCULAR.]

Navy Department, 29th Nov. 1825.

SIR: Captain THOMAS MACDONOUGH died on the 10th of this month, off the Capes of the Delaware, on his return from active service in the Mediterranean.

It is proper that a tribute of respect be paid to the memory of a man whose services were so useful to his country, and who so eminently united in himself the best qualities of a citizen with the highest reputation as an officer.

You will, therefore, on the day after receiving this order, cause the flag to be hoisted at halfmast, and thirteen minute guns to be fired at 12 o'clock; and you will direct the officers under your command to wear crape on the left arm, for thirty days.

I am, respectfully, &c.

By the packet ship Stephania, Captain Pell, in 31 days from Havre, the Editors of the New York Daily Advertiser have received their Paris papers to Oct. 24th, and Havre papers to the 25th.

Sales of Cotton at Havre. Oct. 24th. 160 bales Georgia, at from 25 to 26½ sous, 100 Pernam. 20½.

The Pacha of Egypt is dilligently preparing again against the Greeks.

France.—General Lafayette dined with M. Terchaux, on the 21st in company with the envoys from Hayti and several old deputies of the opposition. M. Cæsar Laponouze was also present.

Mr. Huskisson, President of the board of Trade of England, lately dined with the French Minister of Finance, in company with several other ministers, and the members of the French Council of Commerce.

Greece.—Letters from Hydra say that the affairs of the Greeks are still prosperous in the Morea, although Tripolizza continues in the hands of the Egyptians. Nothing more is said of the assassination of Ibrahim Pacha, which was reported; but the Augsburg Gazette states that Hussein Bey has probably lost his life, which must produce disorder in the Egyptian army.

Letters from Corfu, and several other of the Ionian Islands, to the 18th, and 19th, Sept. agree in confirming the report of the assassination of Ibrahim Pacha. They say that he fell dead by a pistol shot at him by the nephew of Hussien Bey, whom he had reproached for quitting Candia, knowing that an insurrection was about to break out in the Island. Ibrahim, in an excess of anger, had killed Hussein with his own hand. This event, which every body believed at Corfu, has produced trouble among the Egyptians and Turks, who are returning to Navarino.

It is stated in letters from the frontiers of Italy, that the maritime preparations at Alexandria and Constantinople, are carried on very slowly, as the Porte cannot obtain sailors. Mr. Stratford Canning's arrival at the latter city, is likely to prove beneficial to English commerce.

Liverpool, Oct. 22.—The sales of cotton at Liverpool the week ending October 22d, consisted of about 12,000 bags, at the prices of the preceeding week. A letter of the 22d says—"We have again to-day a good demand—not much less than 3,000 bags have been sold, although we cannot quote American cotton any higher than yesterday. Brazils have advanced a little. On the whole, the feeling in the market continues favorable. Ashes continue very dull. For tobacco of the new crop there is a fair demand, and the prices generally are steady. Some new turpentine has been sold to-day at 10s. 6d. Our grain markets have not undergone any alteration of late, but have been rather looking down.

MARRIED,

On Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Morrison, Mr. Archibald Tyson, of Moore county, to Miss Ann M'Iver, of this county, daughter of the late Kenneth M'Iver, Esq. Sheriff.

DIED,

At his residence in Robeson county, on the 13th ult. the Rev. Daniel Smith, formerly Pastor of Aimwell and Hopewell Churches, South Carolina; who for many years laboured under a pulmonary complaint, which he bore with christian fortitude and resignation; has left a wife and two small children to mourn his loss; he died as he lived, with a full assurance of a resurrection unto eternal life.

POETRY.

SHE HAS NO HEART.—By Percival.

She has no heart, but she is fair—
The rose, the lilly can't out vie her;
She smiles so sweetly, that the air
Seems full of light and beauty nigh her.

She has no heart, but yet her face
So many hues of youth revealing,
With so much liveliness and grace,
That on my soul 'tis ever stealing.

She has no heart—she cannot love,
But she can kindle love in mine—
Strange, that the softness of a dove
Round such a thing of air can twine.

She has no heart—her eye, though bright,
Has not the brightness of the soul;
'Tis not the pure and tender light,
That love from seraph beauty stole.

'Tis but a wild and 'witching flame,
That leads us on awhile through flowers,
Then leaves us, lost in guilt and shame,
To mourn our vain departed hours.

Go then from me—thou canst not chain
A soul, whose flight is wing'd above;
Turn not on me thine eye again;
Thou hast no heart, thou canst not love.

For Sale,

A VALUABLE PLANTATION, on the East side of Cape Fear river, opposite the town of Fayetteville, on the Stage road leading to Raleigh, two and an half miles above Clarendon Bridge—This tract contains three hundred and ninety eight acres, with a good Saw and Grist Mill on the same; the Grist Mill commands a large range of custom. The Land is well adapted to the culture of Corn and Cotton. Any person disposed to purchase the same may know the terms by applying to Merrit Sedberry in Fayetteville, or Joseph J. Brooks in Chatham county. A great bargain will be given in this Land. JOSEPH J. BROOKS.

Map of North Carolina.

THIS desirable Work, which has been unavoidably delayed, is now progressing, and will probably be completed in the course of the ensuing winter. Those gentlemen who have been kind enough to undertake the correction of the Maps of their respective counties, and who have not yet found it convenient to do so, are respectfully solicited to give the matter a moment of their attention as soon as may be convenient.

From the specimens of correctness which those Maps that have been received in most instances afford, the public may be assured that a more correct Map of the State will be obtained by the means pursued than by any other that could have been adopted. In many instances entire Maps of the different counties have been made out with great labour, and no doubt with as much accuracy.

To those gentlemen from whom the corrected Maps have been received, the subscriber begs leave to return his grateful acknowledgments.
